

Falcon Daily News

Friday, November 20, 2009

Good morning! Today we will follow the schedule for an odd day so you will attend your period 1 class followed by periods 3 and 7.

TODAY'S QUOTE IS:

When eating a fruit, think of the person who planted the tree.

Students...please be sure to check our lost and found, it is over-flowing with jackets, lunch boxes and other assorted items. We also have items left over from 6th Grade Camp in the office. Anything not claimed by today, November 20th will be donated to charity.

Attention all students and staff: The library will be closed all day today Friday, November 20th. Have a Happy Thanksgiving!

Here is today's story reflecting our focus on the pillar: TRRFCC

Good Morning, Falcons! This is _____ with a few words of wisdom.

Isn't Thanksgiving a great American holiday – all that turkey and dressing and cranberry sauce and pumpkin pie? In America, we are very fortunate, because most of us can simply walk into the nearest grocery store and buy everything we need for a great Thanksgiving feast.

Since Thanksgiving is all about giving thanks, I want you to think about this when you sit down to your Thanksgiving meal. Think about the many hands that worked long and hard to bring all that food to your table. Be grateful, not just to those who cooked the food, but to everyone who made it possible, from the farmer to the produce man to the truck driver to the grocer.

The Vietnamese say it this way:

When eating a fruit, think of the person who planted the tree.

Have a wonderful and safe Thanksgiving week!

Remember to live the Falcon Way and be Terrific (TRRFCC)!

With something to think about, this is _____. Make it a great day...or not. The choice is yours.

Please stand for the Pledge of Allegiance. Classes may begin when you are ready.

Students are at the heart of Oak Valley and meeting their needs is our first priority.

