

Name: _____ Teacher _____ Per. _____

Controversial Issues Research

Fall 2009

1. List 3 keywords related to your research topic. _____
2. What is the library website's address? http://_____
3. The username and password for PHS databases can be found _____
4. The username is _____ The password is _____
5. Cross out the statements that are not true about PHS subscription databases:
 - Contains publisher evaluated information created for reference and research.
 - Contains advertisements or paid sponsors.
 - Tied to CA curriculum standards.
 - Can be edited by students and staff.
6. Which Gale database is good for controversial issues research? _____
7. A Subject Guide Search can help you find: _____

8. In Gale's Advanced Search which of the following will NARROW your search results (circle all)

NOT AND OR Limit by Publication Date Limit by Content Type

9. Where can the MLA Citation be found in GALE documents: _____
10. Correct this GALE MLA Citation:

Clark, Kim. "Stop Guzzling, Start Cashing In.(Brief Article)." U.S. News & World Report. 139. 13 (Oct 10, 2005): 42. Opposing Viewpoints Resource Center. Gale. Poway High School. 11 Oct. 2009 <<http://find.galegroup.com/>>.

11. What is the name of the EBSCO database that is good for controversial issues? _____
12. In EBSCO's Advanced Search circle those things that will EXPAND your search:
NOT OR AND Apply Related Words Use a wild card (*, ?)

13. What is NOT true about CQ Researcher? (cross out those that are NOT true)

Articles are written by respected journalists. Articles are lengthy. Articles are always up-to-date.

14. Login to the Library Catalog to (circle all that are apply)

Find out when your books are due. To renew books. To have access to evaluated websites.

15. What do I need to note to find the book on the shelf? (circle one)

author & publisher & availability title & call number & availability date & lexile

16. On the library's website under what button can I find the Controversial Issues page? (circle one)

Databases Class Visits Writing Catalog

17. The library is open _____. The databases are open _____.

18. To print at PHS costs _____¢ for black/white _____¢ color. To email or download costs _____¢