

Factors Affecting College Admission

- High school grade point average in a-g courses.
- Standardized test scores.
- Number, content, and performance in academic courses beyond the minimum eligibility requirements.
- Number of and performance in honors and AP courses.
- Quality of the senior year program, as measured by the type and number of academic courses in progress or planned.
- Quality of academic performance relative to educational opportunities available in the applicant's school
- Recent marked improvement in academic performance.
- Special talents, achievements, and awards.
- Academic accomplishments in light of an applicant's life experiences and special circumstances, such as disabilities, low family income, first generation to attend college, need to work, disadvantaged social or educational environment, difficult personal and family situations.