

CHILD ABUSE PREVENTION AND REPORTING

Child Abuse Reporting

All suspected child abuse of children under 18 years of age must be reported to the local law enforcement agency (Poway Sheriff or San Diego Police), or Child Protective Services (CPS) immediately or as soon as practically possible.

The act of inflicting injury or allowing injury or allowing injury to result, rather than the degree of injury, is the determinant for intervention. Therefore, child abuse includes:

- Physical abuse (non-accidental physical injury)
- Physical neglect (possible harm to child's health or welfare)
- Sexual abuse (incest, rape, exploitation, etc.)
- Emotional maltreatment (verbal assaults, emotional deprivation)

When there is suspected child abuse, the law enforcement agency or CPS must be notified by telephone immediately or as soon as practically possible. The telephone report shall include:

1. Name of the student
2. Present location of the student
3. Nature and extent of the injury/abuse
4. Other information relevant to the incident, and as required by the law enforcement agency

Employees are not required to give their own name; however, greater credence is generally given if reports are not anonymous. The identity of the reporting party is confidential. All certificated employees and classified employees are mandated reporters and are required to report suspected child abuse cases. Whenever there is reasonable suspicion to believe that an act of child abuse has occurred, a report shall be made.

"Reasonable Suspicion means that it is objectively reasonable for a person to entertain such a suspicion based upon facts that could cause a reasonable person in a like position, drawing, when appropriate, on his/her training and experience, to suspect child abuse."

A written report (SS8572) shall be completed and sent within 36 hours of making the telephone report. Persons reporting cannot incur liability for either civil damage or criminal prosecution as a result of filing a suspected child abuse report. In fact, failure to report is a misdemeanor which is punishable by confinement in county jail for a term not to exceed 6 months and by a fine of not more than $1000. The district health specialist and credentialed resource nurses are available for consultation. Staff members are encouraged to call Child Abuse Hotline for consultation if needed.

The employee responsibility is to report, not to investigate all students suspected of being abused or neglected. Reporting is an individual's responsibility. A mandated reporter is not absolved of responsibility by relying on a supervisor or administrator to meet his/her individual statutory responsibility. If two or more mandated reporters are aware of a situation, by mutual agreement, one person may be designated to make the call and complete the written report. However, if a mandated reporter becomes aware that the designated person failed to report, he/she must then report.

When a CPS representative deems it necessary, the student may be interviewed during school hours, on school premises, concerning a report of suspected child abuse that occurred outside of school. The CPS representative shall afford the child the option of being interviewed in private or selecting any adult who is a member of the school staff to be present.

Prior to the interview, the principal is responsible to inform the selected staff member of the responsibilities listed below. The purpose of the staff person's presence at the interview is to lend support to the student, and enable him/her to be as comfortable as possible during the interview. The Administrator recognizes that selected staff members may decline the request to be present for the interview.

The selected staff person shall:

1. Not verbally participate in the interview.
2. Avoid discussing the facts or circumstances of the case with the student or others.
3. Maintain confidentiality at all times.
4. Be aware they may be subpoenaed as a court witness.

If selected staff member agrees, the interview shall be held at a time during school hours when it does not involve an expense to the school.

When a CPS worker or law enforcement officer takes a student into custody, it is their responsibility to take immediate steps to notify the parent. The law states the parent/guardian shall be informed that the student is in custody and of the student's whereabouts (except when forbade through a court order for the student's protection). Generally, a call to the parent/guardian will be made prior to leaving the school site or upon registering at the receiving home. An affidavit will be signed by CPS worker/law enforcement officer which verifies parent/guardian notification.

CHILD ABUSE PREVENTION AND REPORTING (continued)Record Retention

The school copy of the written report (SS8572) is to be routed to the school employee (who first observed nonaccidental physical injury) for initialing and return for confidential school files. The school copy is confidential and shall remain in the site principal's locked file. When the student transfers, this copy shall be forwarded with the student's records to the new school of attendance for retention in the new school principal's confidential file.

Staff Training

Principals shall provide inservice training in child abuse identification and reporting for all classified and certificated staff on an annual basis. New staff shall be oriented to this procedure as part of the induction process at the site level. Training shall include guidelines for maintaining positive relationships with students and for disciplining students. Employee rights and protection against unfounded reports shall be included in staff training. Child Protective Services staff are available to assist principal in this area and serve as resources for training.

Reasonable suspicion means that it is objectively reasonable for a person to entertain a suspicion, based upon facts that could cause a reasonable person in a like position, drawing when appropriate on his/her training and experience, to suspect child abuse or neglect. However, reasonable suspicion does not require certainty that child abuse or neglect has occurred nor does it require a specific medical indication of child abuse or neglect. (Penal Code 11166)

Reportable Offenses

A mandated reporter shall make a report using the procedures provided below whenever, in his/her professional capacity or within the scope of his/her employment, he/she has knowledge of or observes a child whom the mandated reporter knows or reasonably suspects has been the victim of child abuse or neglect. If a parent/guardian makes a complaint about an employee to any other employee, the employee receiving the information shall notify the parent/guardian of procedures for filing a complaint with the appropriate agency. The employee also is obligated pursuant to Penal Code 11166 to file a report himself/herself using the procedures described above for mandated reporters.

The Superintendent or designee also shall notify all employees that:

1. A mandated reporter who reports a known or suspected instance of child abuse or neglect shall not be held civilly or criminally liable for making a report and this immunity shall apply even if the mandated reporter acquired the knowledge or reasonable suspicion of child abuse or neglect outside of his/her professional capacity or outside the scope of his/her employment.
