

COUNSELING COMMUNICATION GUIDELINES

The district believes in encouraging communication between students and parents. Therefore, it is the policy of the district to strongly encourage students to seek parental assistance in any decision making to ensure student health, safety, and well-being. District employees shall refrain from advising students on specific courses of action as related to pregnancy alternatives, but may provide individual counseling and discuss any topic as it relates to a student's educational goals.