SECTION 4.236 GENERAL LEAVE (Exchange Teaching, Travel, Service as an Officer of the Exclusive Representative, Educational Opportunities, Acquisition of Advanced Degrees, Specific Educational Opportunities)

General leave is not to exceed one school year without pay. A one-year extension may be granted with Board approval.

Each request for a General Leave shall be considered on its own merit, compliance with statutory requirements, and the effect upon the instructional programs of the District.

Leaves may be granted for exchange teacher, acquisition of advanced degrees, travel, service as an officer of the Exclusive Representative, and/or specific educational opportunities with prior written approval of the Associate Superintendent, Personnel/Employee Relations.

One year of exchange teaching or service as the President of the Exclusive Representative will be considered to equal one year of teaching within the District for salary determination upon return to employment.
