

Will you be a junior during the 2023-24 school year?

Do you want to take advantage of the cost savings by starting college as a Junior?

Are you looking for a smaller learning environment with ample support?

If you answered “yes” to the above questions, then you are the right candidate for PUSD’s Middle College High School

What is Middle College High School

Middle College is an innovative, contemporary high school on a college campus which provides the opportunity for students to earn a high school diploma and start college early to gain credits towards a certificate or degree. Students will also have access to internships or job shadowing opportunities in the community as an integrated part of the educational process. We concentrate on college and career preparation through general education, technical education, and high school credits.

Good candidates may be any of the following:

- Students who need extra support to be successful.
- Students who are currently underperforming in a comprehensive high school setting.
- Students who are on track to graduate but have a life circumstance that limits their ability to thrive in a comprehensive high school.
- Students who are more focused on an early start to college.
- Students who view education as an opportunity to pursue future goals and/or dreams.
- Students who are ready to transition to an adult-oriented college environment.
