The College Board offers fee waivers to low income students who meet the following criteria.

You are eligible for fee waivers if you say "yes" to any of the following:

- You are enrolled in or eligible to participate in the National School Lunch Program (NSLP).
- Your annual family income falls within the Income Eligibility Guidelines set by the USDA Food and Nutrition Service. <https://www.fns.usda.gov/school-meals/income-eligibility-guidelines>
- You are enrolled in a federal, state, or local program that aids students from low-income families (e.g., Federal TRIO programs such as Upward Bound).
- Your family receives public assistance.
- You live in federally subsidized public housing or a foster home or are homeless.
- You are a ward of the state or an orphan.

If you can say "yes" to at least one of the above criteria and would like your school or district to share this information with the College Board to be eligible for fee waivers, please sign this consent form and return it to:
