Reading	Fall Score	Winter Score	Spring Score	What is Measured
Overall Reading Score:
Lexile
Reading Literature				I can identify the characters, settings, plots, and themes in my reading. I can explain how the moral of a story was developed through key details in the text. I can tell what a character is like or what the mood of a story is by what the author says and what the illustrator draws. I can tell who the narrator is when I'm reading. I can interpret words and phrases and know if they are literal or figurative.
Reading Informational Text				I can answer questions by finding my answer in the text. I can find the main idea and explain how the details support the main idea. I can make inferences that help me to understand what I'm reading and recognize cause-effect relationships. I can use information from maps, graphs, and photos to help me understand what I'm reading. I can compare and contrast important points in two texts on the same topic. I understand fact and opinion.
Foundational Skills and Vocabulary				I use many different ways to figure out words I don't know, such as word families, context clues, prefixes, suffixes, synonyms, antonyms, and homophones. I can read with accuracy and fluency. I use other words in a sentence to help me understand new words and reread when a sentence doesn't make sense.
